The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, somewhat similar to that which has been filled in India by the &c.-T. N. DRISCOLL, 45 and 47 Calcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body, among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship, is now assiduously cultivated, and who are severally represented in the first -- Moone's Vancery Store, 42, number of the Review by papers highly Queen's Road. creditable to their respective authors. In Rev. E. J. Eitel, to which the place of Pencil-cases, &c. John Noble, agent summary is presented of the chronological problems and arguments involved in connexion with this important work. Some translations from Chinese novels and plays tions.—WM. Schmidt & Co., Gunare marked by both account of the career of Arcade. the Chinese poet-statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowrs, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that "Notes" and "Queries" are destined to
